2015-11-25

If you want to know the news worth knowing from the AMA 2016 CPT® and RBRVS Symposium, be sure to head over to blog.SuperCoder.com. SuperCoder's own Susan Dooley posted daily updates:

- What Does CPT® Have in Common With Star Trek?
- Check Out 2016 CPT® Changes for Interventional Radiology, Molecular Pathology, and Pain Management
- CPT® Adjusts Radiation Oncology, Cardiology Coding for 2016
- A Lot to Swallow With 2015 Gastroenterology CPT® Changes.

You'll learn crucial tips like what to watch for in the documentation to support reporting RS&I code 74485 with 50395 for (Introduction of guide into renal pelvis and/or ureter with dilation to establish nephrostomy tract, percutaneous) and what name you may see in the documentation for 43210, a new code for esophagogastric fundoplasty.

Keep an eye out for details on an upcoming webinar from Susan with more of the take-home tips from the symposium.
